This is a good rugged bull that is well bred and has good character and of the right type. Here will be an opportunity to get a tried sire that is proving himself to be worthy of heading a good herd of Shorthorns. He will bear inspection and consideration.

A good thick red bull ready for heavy service.

Golden Victory, a full brother to Supreme Goldfinder, is individually a very outstanding bull. He has character, thickness, heavy bone, and hind quarters such as are found on few bulls. See the calves by him sale day, and you will agree with us that he is a good sire.

Low Set—As his name implies is just that way, only more so. He is as short a legged calf and as thick a one as we have ever raised. He has a perfect bull head. Anybody looking for a thick, low down good doing calf will like him. He is sired by the bull we sold R. W. Cable, Clearmont. He is out of probably the best cow on the farm. This cow is the dam of Wayne Howard's bull, which is the sire of the Howard consignment to this sale. His grand dam now 14 years old and with a grand bull calf at foot by Golden Fame is the dam of Supreme Perfection, the McClaskey bull. This is a wonderful herd bull prospect for some one.
